Qualifications for CMAA National Director

CMAA is looking for the best and the brightest candidates to bring their passion, energy, innovation and vision to its National Board.

The following list of qualifications would help to ensure a positive contribution to the CMAA National Board and the Association’s long-term success. The hope is that each Director will bring different and special experiences, from which the members, the staff, and fellow Board members could benefit.

Please consider the following qualifications criteria when deciding to run for the CMAA National Board:

- Is a current Professional CMAA member with a minimum of 10 years of membership.
- Is a current Certified Club Manager (CCM).
- Can devote up to 15 days per year away from his/her club for CMAA-related business, such as Board meetings, chapter visits, and committee service.
- Has served as a chapter officer (chapter president is ideal). Chapters are the grassroots of our Association.
- Has participated on a national and/or At-Conference committee. The committee structure is an important part of CMAA governance and candidates should have experienced this process.
- Is willing to lead/chair a national committee, as appointed by the CMAA Chairman.
- Is willing to consider becoming an officer of the Board at the appropriate time.
- Attends the World Conference regularly and has attended a Leadership/Legislative Conference.
- Is highly regarded and respected by others – an influential member of the Association and/or club management community.
- Is passionate about the continuous improvement of CMAA.
- Is a flexible strategic thinker who demonstrates a commitment to CMAA’s mission and works respectfully with staff, committees, and fellow Board members toward goals.
- Works collaboratively and engages in appropriate debate and discussion as called upon.
- Can strengthen the Association because of the expertise he/she brings from his/her professional background.
- Is informed, available, and engaged; willing to represent the Association and/or promote its interests at national events and donor circles; willing to help bring in necessary resources.
- Is a conscientious steward who is as interested in the business of developing CMAA and monitoring its health.

Potential candidates will also need to submit the following to the Nominating Committee Chairman (c/o Kim Pasquale at the CMAA National HQ) by June 30:

- Nomination form;
- Letter of support from his/her club president;
- Letter of support from an industry colleague;
- Biographical information;
- Platform statement (300 words or less).

NOTES: Selected candidate interviews will take place in early August. Selected candidates will be required to give a live 90-second prompted statement at the Leadership/Legislative Conference as well as a live two-minute speech at the World Conference.
